Covid-19 – Sturdy Edwards Response

We would like to reassure our customers that we remain open for business and are now in a position to offer face to face meetings at our offices, by prior appointment only.

When working from home, we will have access to our computer systems and the regular telephone number (01342 313733) should operate as usual.

In the event that our normal telephone line fails, during office hours, you may contact our directors personally on their numbers below:
